I pray that you have had great blessings this year already and are seeing great things happen this year already. I know that I am already ready for warm weather and the greening of the grass, blooming of the flowers and seeing leaves on the trees.

I pray that you have not been hurt too much with the economic down turn. We must put our faith in God not in the world and what the world offers because that never provides the security or the answers we need. God is the only one that can provide those things. We must trust him and only him with our life and our needs.

I do pray that you are planning to come to the "PRAYING FOR THE HARVEST" meeting we are having on January 26 at First Baptist Church Adamsville at 7:00 pm. This meeting will help us prepare for the rest of the year.

Our minister's retreat is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, February 6-7 at Linden Valley. I know you will be blessed by attending this meeting. It only costs $20.00 for you to go. Please get registered soon by calling the Associational office to get your name on the list. Dr. Phil Jett will be our speaker for the meetings.

We are excited to again have the Union University Preacher night for our churches. I look forward to seeing all the students again. We did not have this last year because of the tornados that hit our area and Union. I hope your church will have a student this year.

It is a joy to serve the Lord through the ministry of the association.

Bro. Ron
